

Respond rationally, not emotionally.

Don't let your gut instincts get the best of you.

It's easy to overreact to misbehaviors, especially if we are tired, ill, or caught off guard. In a crisis, take a few moments to activate your Thinking Brain. Respond professionally rather than reacting personally.