

No one wins a power struggle.

The only winning move is refusing to play.

Don't try to beat aggressive youth at their own games. We cannot teach respect by showing disrespect, nor kindness by bullying. Instead, inspire them to play a different game by offering respect freely while still enforcing expectations firmly.